

Cultural Report 2016-17

The cultural team headed by Mrs. D.M.Ujalambkar, the general secretary Delton Mascarenhas and the joint general secretary Vishal Raut has been winning accolades as well as appreciation through their plays based on various topics.

PURUSHOTTAM KARANDAK:-

Our team has been participating in ‘Purushottam Karandak’ since long and plays like ‘16th August’ and ‘Kumbhu’ have touched the audience and the judges. This year our play ‘It’s Everybody’s Business’ highlighting the life of a reporter and his righteous principles of life. The team of 16 students put on an excellent performance on the topic.

FIRODIYA KARANDAK 2017:-

‘Firodiya Karandak’ is inter-collegiate competition in which students showcase various talents onstage. Our college secured a place in top 9 for the play ‘Touchscreen’ in the year 2015 and a place in top 15 for the play ‘Bubblegum’ in the year 2017. The play ‘Bubblegum’ portrayed the life of a simple waiter and his dreams in the city of Mumbai. The lead actor, Pushkar Shinde, bagged the Third Prize in the acting category. This play had a deep impact on the audience and was well received.

SHIVANJALI 2017:-

The cultural students have successfully organized as well as managed the college annual function 'Shivanjali 2017'. This year being the 25th year of the institution, the annual event was a grand affair. The event took place on the 17th and 18th of February. The chief guest for the evening was the famous Marathi actress Sai Tamhankar and the Honorary Secretary of AISSM Society, Shri Malojiraje Chhatrapati, as well as dignities of the A.I.S.S.M.Society. The first day was the prize distribution ceremony in which students with excellent performance in various fields like academics, cultural and sports were felicitated. On the second day, the students with all their efforts performed various events viz. dance, music, plays which were well appreciated by the audience.

ASHWAMEDH 2017:-

The students of cultural team organized the intercollegiate cultural events in ‘Ashwamedh 2017’ which was held from 13th of February to 15th of February in which students from all over Pune participated in various events viz. dance competition, battle of bands, singing competition, poetry, elocution. This event was organized by the students and for the students. The fund for the event was raised by sponsorships from well known companies like Adar Poonawala, etc. Near about 500 students from various colleges under Pune University had participated.

The event was a grand success.

Other Achievements:-

Our music team participated in Vedant 2016 band competition organized by B.J. Medical College, Pune. The performance was well taken by audience and was appreciated by judges.

The management and administration along with the faculties have been constantly supporting us as well as showering us with their good wishes. We hope for the best in the upcoming years with more support.

The team of AISSMS COE is ready to head the cultural activities for academic year 2017-18 like Purshottam Karandak to be held in August 2017, Firodiya karandak to be played in February 2018 with the main highlights of Shivanjali-2018 and Ashwamedh -2018 in month of February. We hope our students will carry forward the same talent and are sure that such activities will leave behind a lasting impression in the minds of the young participants and it will help them in moulding their lives.
