About The Programme

Engineering education is transforming at the faster pace. Technical teachers are required to empower for implementing innovative, advanced pedagogy for their professional refinement and students enhanced learning. With this view, our institute has launched Center of Excellence in Teaching & Learning (CETL) to execute in-house and collaborative training activities for technical teachers to adopt effective pedagogy. Our CETL is now organizing UGC-HRDC sponsored 10 day's faculty development programme (FDP). This activity is aimed to provide exposure to faculty about paradigm shift in teaching learning process and make them able to adopt latest tools and techniques. They will be trained to understand the art and craft of engaging students, to create dynamic, active and participative classroom learning, to increase learning outcome by infusing innovative technologies, learning management system, ICT integration, instructional methods, assessment, evaluation, attainment tools and techniques.
